

Welcome to the biggest little swap meet around. What do I mean by that? Well, the 8th Annual St. Patrick's Day motorcycle Swap meet happened again and I was able this year to make it to the show.

This swap is a really small version of what the old days used to be like. With a lot of camaraderie and gathering of friends, we all enjoyed a day of fun with the proceeds going to good causes. This year the group plans to donate up to $350 to each of three food pantries in its ABATE region, with some of the remaining funds also going to Camp American Legion.

This group of Brothers and Sisters from ABATE 5B does a great job of organizing, promoting and achieving a great day of family fun for all to enjoy. With a ton of raffle prizes, vendors (over 12 this year with a variety of wares), a small bike show for folks to judge and plenty of food and beverage served up with live music by the Dirty Side Down Band all at the Northwood's Banquet Center in Rhinelander.

So till next year, ride safe all of you in the North woods, I will see you on the hi-ways and bi-ways this season.
